

Lion and Bear (mini DV, 10 sec., 2007)

Stop-motion book parts.

House Upon a Hill (mini DV, 1 min., 2003)

Paper Puppetry. Flying birds, a blender and more.

Piano Mouths (mini DV, 30 sec., 2003)

A piano is used to make mouths sing.

Sophie's Story (mini DV, 2 min., 2003)

Puppetry and water:h) A boy and his friendship with a mermaid.

Paup-er-naut (16mm, 5 min., 2003)

Bubbles and forks, and an accordion played backwards.

Spiral (S16, 8 min., 2004)

"Jeanne Stern Proves that time is relative and that time goes faster as we age. Her three characters merge into a single woman at different points in her life?"

Les Malaventures de Zut-Alors (10 min., 35mm, 2006)

Clock-work puppetry. The story of a Siamese brother and sister, and their quest for love.

She Left the Window Open (2 min., mini DV, 2005)

Jeanne plays two characters in this take on the Cure's "Lullaby?"

Bellwether (3 min., S16, 2007)

Unfinished. Calliope is a lonely seamstress. Her only friend is her yellow umbrella, until a strange creature falls through her window, leading her to the world of umbrella creatures.

Sprout (5 min., S16, 2007)

Paper puppetry, water and wax. The kitchen sink overflows, flooding the room and causing the room to sprout to life.

JeanneStern.com

Films by Jeanne Stern

★ Les Malaventures de Zut-Alors ★ Piano Mouths ★

★ Sprout ★ Spiral ★ Sophie's Story ★

and more Clock-work puppetry & live-action shorts